

MANDATE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

BOARD APPROVED: October 24, 2018

Purpose

The purpose or role of the Board has two fundamental elements: decision-making and oversight. The decision-making function is exercised with respect to the formulation with management of fundamental policies and strategic goals and through the approval of certain significant actions. The oversight function concerns the review of management decisions, the adequacy of systems and controls and the implementation of policies. The Board establishes formal delegations of authority, defining the limits of management's power and authority and delegating to management certain powers to manage the business of the Bank. The delegations of authority conform to statutory limitations specifying responsibilities of the board that cannot be delegated to management. Any responsibilities not delegated to management remain with the Board and its committees.

Organization of the Board of Directors

The Board shall consist of ten (10) directors, a majority of whom must be resident Canadians at the time of their election or appointment. The Board shall be constituted by a majority of independent directors^{i ii}.

Every director, in exercising any of the powers of a director and any of the duties of a director, shall:

- a) act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Bank; and
- b) exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances.

Meetings of the Board of Directors

In order for the Board to transact business at a meeting, a majority of directors must be present. The Board shall meet at least once each quarter and shall schedule a sufficient number of meetings (whether in person or by teleconference) to carry out its mandate. There shall be an in camera session at each quarterly Board meeting with only independent directors present.

The members of the Board of Directors are expected to attend all meetings of the Board and its committees in person, when at all possible. Attendance by telephone may be used to facilitate a director's attendance.

Directors are expected to devote the appropriate amount of time necessary to review meeting materials such that they are able to engage in informed discussion and make informed decisions.

Reporting from Committees

Certain functions of the Board may be delegated to committees of the Board. Such delegation will be confirmed by the Board approval of committee mandates.

Unless waived by the Board, the Chair of each Board Committee shall provide a verbal summary report to the Board on material matters considered during a meeting of such committee at the next meeting of the Board.

Resources and Authority

The Board shall have unrestricted access to management of the Bank and, if determined necessary by the Board, to any employee of the Bank, its subsidiaries or affiliates. The Board shall have the authority to retain and terminate independent legal counsel, consultant or other advisors to assist it in fulfilling its responsibilities and to set and pay the compensation of these advisors without consulting or obtaining the approval of any officer of the Company.
